

Summary

Mid-Way goes into communities where it is most needed and Train individuals to become Life coaches and Mentors.

Our Focus group is Youth at Risk and Ex-offenders, but not limited too.

Mid-Way uses the tool of Life Coaching and Mentoring to Train ordinary people to Do the Extra ordinary.

By Training people from the community for the community!

1. Building Trust between Coach and Client is Vital.
2. Understanding Your/Different communities.
3. Become a R.E.A.L Coach.
4. Setting Boundaries, knowing the Values and Understanding the Risks.

How we work

Mid-Way Trains ordinary people from the Community to become Life Coaches within their own Communities, focusing on Ex-offenders and Youth at Risk. Mid-Way plans to create Hubs in every community, to have a one stop shop, where Training and support of life-coaches can happen. The Basic training is 14 hours, and then we have monthly follow-up sessions with coaches, where each time we share a new personal development tool. We support Coaches over a two-year period in each community until their system of community coaching becomes sustainable. Each coach journeys with a client over a year to two-year period. Coaches also gain access to an online partner/referral database via a mobile device. Monitoring takes place through an online management system, and one on one sessions.

Every year over 45,000 prisoners are released and more than 87% of these re-offend. With our help and by embarking on one of our programs the re-offence rate falls to less than 8%.

And this is how we do it:

Please see Support Options:

You support can transform many lives by offering them an alternative to gangs and crime. Instead they can have an opportunity to develop skills and shift their mind-set to become positive contributors in society.
